Selection of 2017 (and beyond) Fellowship Recipients

In the November prior to the award year, the process will begin by marketing and making the applications available to current seniors and alumnae. DRC will communicate to current seniors the AADC Fellowship Application form (to be pre-approved by DRC and AADC) and will receive the applications from the students. Student applications should be sent to the Director of Scholarships at DRC. AADC will communicate to alumnae and receive the applications from alumnae. Alumnae applications should be sent to the AADC Fellowship Committee, attention Susan Sturgill or such other staff person as may be designated by the AADC from time to time. All applications (i.e. to AADC and DRC) will be due by March 1. AADC will promptly send all relevant fellowship applications to the DRC Director of Scholarships.

On or before March 1, AADC will provide a Fellowship Budget to the DRC Director of Scholarships for the current award year.

The DRC Fellowship Committee will follow all requirements/specifications as detailed in the donor specifications and will begin the fellowship review process. This process will include the Director of Scholarships contacting academic departments if indicated in specifications. The DRC review and selection process shall be completed no later than April 1 at which time DRC will forward all student and alumnae applications to the AADC. All applicants will be included in the AADC selection process. To the extent necessary, DRC may request alumnae applications to complete the DRC selection process.

The AADC will steward all fellowship donors and will notify all recipients of their award selection. The AADC shall select the recipient of any new fellowships raised by the AADC pursuant to 7(g) of the Agreement.
