Make Lifelong Connections

Message from the Associate Alumnae of Douglass College
Executive Director Valerie L. Anderson '81, MBA

What if you never connected with the AADC by coming to events, taking advantage of our programs, volunteering with sister alumnae, returning for Reunion, meeting classmates at regional group or affinity network gatherings, or even by visiting our website? For those who may not be involved or connected through the AADC to our valuable alumnae sisterhood, I ask as a leader and as an alumna, "What if?"

I have witnessed the joy when alumnae come back to campus for our events or programs. I have seen the energy created when alumnae come together. Something powerful happens in the process of becoming engaged and connected. It shows on the faces of alumnae like those who were inspired by last fall's outstanding Victoria Dabrowski Schmidt '42 Workplace and Professional Symposium. It also shows when members of the AADC Black Alumnae Network welcomed alumnae to the network's Sisters Conference commemorating the 35th Anniversary of this empowering group. Joy shines in the embraces of classmates at Alumnae Reunion Weekend. And again when the AADC Young Alumnae Network hosts a spa and wellness event or when alumnae gather as part of one of our AADC Regional Connection groups. Still, more, I hear it in the praise about the vibrant AADC Mabel's Alumnae Mentoring Program.

In this timely newsletter, we provide the AADC's annual report for the fiscal year 2015-2016. Alumnae participating and staying involved are realizing the value of making lifelong connections through engagement in AADC programs, events and initiatives.

The impact of women's education truly grows for each of us after graduation. With this in mind, the AADC is committed to a broad approach of offering programs that help women prepare for lifelong learning and that encourage authentic connections.

I have the honor, together with the AADC Board of Directors and phenomenal staff, of leading an amazing organization whose volunteer leadership are helping shape a strong future for our alumnae community. The value of the work we do together demonstrates the impact of your support. When you engage with like-minded women who share the legacy of the same undergraduate educational experience, something special takes place.

One highlight is the inaugural year of the AADC Mabel's Alumnae Mentoring Program. It has been just one of our success stories of alumnae making connections as pairs of Mentors and Mentees who share advice and support. Participants have said this innovative program is meaningful and relevant, no matter where they are in life. The program has proven to be of great personal value in an ever-changing job market and as another way to network through every stage of life. Networking with sister alumnae during a job search may be invaluable in finding that next position or getting a needed career boost. Through this program, we have learned that networking is not just a job search skill, but a life skill. Your next opportunity to get involved with this program will be coming soon, as we gear up this spring for more alumnae to get involved. Alumnae can participated near or far through the use of technology.

Connect,
get involved,
be inspired.

We are also pleased to welcome Patricia Teffenhart '01, Executive Director of the NJ Coalition Against Sexual Assault, who returns to campus to deliver the Zagoren Lecture on March 21. Patricia is committed to improving the treatment and status of women and to elevating public discourse on sexual assault. This annual lecture honors the late, influential alumnae leader Adelaide Marcus Zagoren '04, who served as a longtime AADC Executive Director.

We have a lot in store for this year's Founders Day Celebration. We will feature the AADC Society of Excellence Induction Ceremony and commemorate an important milestone – the 95th Anniversary of the AADC. We will also kickoff our Alumnae Celebration of the 100th Anniversary of alma mater. I hope you will stay tuned for more about these important celebrations to be held on April 22, following Spring Alumnae Council.

In addition, we will herald the Vanguard Class of 1967 at Alumnae Reunion Weekend, June 2-3, and classes from the 2s and 7s celebrating milestone reunions. The AADC Alumnae Awards Ceremony will also be featured at Reunion Convocation.

As the new year unfolds, I offer my gratitude and thanks to all of our dedicated alumnae who volunteer and serve in leadership capacities to help engage even more alumnae. Because of you, there is so much that the AADC does and can do.

Thank you for making lifelong connections that matter. This is truly YOUR alumnae association. The AADC is strong and our alumnae and friends demonstrate this through their ongoing financial support to the AADC Annual Appeal and by their service. We are proud of what we have accomplished over many decades and will for many more to come. Get involved. You will be inspired and your hearts will be touched.

Sharing In Success

Volunteering and Participating in AADC Programs

“ After attending my first Alumnae Reunion Weekend, I decided to volunteer at the AADC while I planned my next steps. I got to know a lot of sister alumnae and am grateful for their enthusiasm and support. Some of the skills I honed as a volunteer became assets during my job search.

I signed up for the AADC Mabel's Alumnae Mentoring Program to learn from someone who has experience in business and who wanted to develop a relationship. I was an economics major, so being paired with Mary Kelleher DiMartino '85, an executive director in public finance investment banking, has been great. Working with Mary during my recent job search was amazing because her advice, experiences, and suggestions were extremely valuable when interviewing.

I am proud to report that I recently accepted my first post-graduation position as a Market Data Analyst with Bloomberg in Princeton, NJ. The AADC shares in my success. ”

Leadership Circle

The Mabel Smith Douglass Leadership Circle recognizes the Associate Alumnae of Douglass College's most loyal and committed supporters. Members firmly believe in the AADC's core values and support the AADC's Annual Appeal, which provides us the flexibility to seize unique opportunities which empower and strengthen our sisterhood, to direct funds to alumnae programs and initiatives that are of the greatest priority, and to support general administration that allows us to be a best-in-class alumnae organization.

Elizabeth Rodman Voorhees Society

Gifts of $25,000+

A founding benefactor of the College, Mrs. Voorhees also bequeathed her estate for the purpose of constructing and endowing a Chapel and left specific instructions that the building include a fireplace and staircase for use in the annual Yule Log ceremony.

Neilson Family Society

Gifts of $10,000 - $24,999

Three generations of the Neilson Family served as benefactors; James Neilson was a notable benefactor and member of the Board of Managers when alma mater was founded. Mr. Neilson donated much of the land on which the Douglass Campus is located.

Loree Society

Gifts of $5,000 - $9,999

Leonor F. Loree, a Rutgers University trustee, funded the construction of an Athletic Field on the Douglass Campus, and was asked to name the field. He called the field "Antilles" in memory of the first American transport to be sunk in World War I.

Cooper Society

Gifts of $1,000 - $4,999

Mr. and Mrs. Drury Cooper owned a home directly across the street from College Hall during alma mater's first year of operation. In 1919, the couple gifted the house to the College and Cooper Hall became the College's second building.

Jameson Young Alumnae Society

Gifts of $300 - $999 (First 10 years post-graduation)

A large part of the land for the Jameson Campus was acquired for the College through the generosity of a member of the Rutgers University Board of Trustees, Edwin C. Jameson. To honor Mr. Jameson's wife, it was named the Mary Gardner Jameson Campus.

The AADC's alumnae initiatives and programs would not be possible without the generous support of alumnae and friends. Each donor is important to the AADC's continued excellence, and we applaud every contributor in each category. We especially thank the members of the Mabel Smith Douglass Leadership Circle, who are among our most loyal and committed supporters. Names of donors who have contributed $300 or more between July 1, 2015 and June 30, 2016 are listed below. All gifts to the AADC Annual Appeal and gifts to the AADC in the form of bequests, charitable gift annuities, and other planned and major gifts are included. We sincerely thank you for your continued involvement and support of the AADC.

2016 SOURCES OF REVENUE & SUPPORT RECEIVED BY THE AADC AND THE DOUGLASS FUND

JULY 1, 2015 – JUNE 30, 2016*

Total Fiscal Year 2016 Revenue & Support = $3,609,077

The Associate Alumnae of Douglass College

The Associate Alumnae of Douglass College (AADC) is committed to developing and promoting the connections among Douglass alumnae by providing programs, services, networks and learning opportunities that enrich their lives; and to providing ongoing financial support to Douglass College and her students through stewardship of the endowed funds of the Associate Alumnae of Douglass College and the Douglass Fund.

Important Facts About Fiscal Year 2016 Revenue Received by the AADC and the Douglass Fund

Endowed contributions comprise 32% of all contributions received in FY16. Endowed contributions may be unrestricted or they may be restricted to a certain purpose by the donor. Endowed contributions are invested and maintained in perpetuity. Only the income from these contributions is expendable.

Investment Income is primarily generated by the endowment and 62% of its use is restricted based on donor stipulations.

Non-endowed restricted contributions may be expended, but only for the purpose for which the donor restricted the gift. Restricted gifts represent 7% of FY16 revenue.

The remaining unrestricted contributions represent 21% of all revenue received in FY16. These contributions make it possible for the AADC to develop and promote the connections among Douglass alumnae by providing programs, services, networks and learning opportunities that enrich their lives; and to provide ongoing financial support to Douglass College and her students through stewardship of the endowed funds of the Associate Alumnae of Douglass College and the Douglass Fund.

Income from other sources, such as GoodShop and AmazonSmile, represents less than 1% of all revenue received in FY16.

During 2015-16, $1,133,866 was added to the endowment for the benefit of Douglass and her students.

In 2015-16, 50% of the DRC program budget was funded by philanthropic support from the Associate Alumnae of Douglass College and the Douglass Fund.

*On April 20, 2015, Rutgers Legal Counsel informed the AADC that it was dissolving the 2005 Memorandum of Agreement that defined AADC's role as the primary fundraiser for Douglass Residential College. In May, 2015, the AADC, the University and the Rutgers University Foundation agreed to enter into a formal mediation process to address these issues. A condition of the mediation process was that neither party could disclose the confidential nature of the discussions. On July 20, 2016, following a series of thoughtful and productive mediation and negotiation sessions and subsequent discussions, Rutgers University and the Rutgers University Foundation (RUF) in partnership with Douglass Residential College (DRC) and the Associate Alumnae of Douglass College, reached an agreement regarding the fundraising structure and alumnae relations program for DRC and the AADC.

Help Us Stengthen Our Alumnae Community

All AADC initiatives and publications like the AADC Magazine for Alumnae & Friends are supported by the generosity of alumnae like you. Contributing to the AADC Annual Appeal supports alumnae initiatives that are of the greatest priority, empowers and strengthens our alumnae sisterhood, and funds general operations to allow the AADC to be a self-funded, best-in-class alumnae organization. Help build a strong future for our sisterhood at DouglassAlumnae.org/MakeaGift.
