AADC Smart Talks Committee Accepting Proposals for Speakers

Our AADC Smart Talks Committee is accepting proposals for speakers from alumnae for educational talks which are held quarterly and broadcast via Facebook Live. AADC Smart Talks offers programs about topics of interest to our diverse alumnae as part of the suite of educational opportunities for alumnae at every stage of life, called the Women's Life-Long Learning Initiative, which also includes our Mabel's Alumnae Mentoring Program and the Victoria Dabrowski Schmidt '42 Workplace and Professional Development Symposium. While AADC Smart Talks are usually be hosted on-site in New Jersey, we also seek to utilize the expertise of alumnae in other locations and to live stream whenever possible.

We invite alumnae to submit proposals to present lectures or workshop sessions that provide alumnae with educational advancement and opportunities to expand knowledge. Alumnae whose proposals are chosen will have the opportunity to share their passion and expertise. You will gain valuable presentation experience, build your resume, profile, develop career skills and enhance your public speaking. Take this opportunity to give back to the AADC and network with alumnae.
